whole market $1,315 à la carte → $1,052 at 10+

Find the prospect's business below and you have the room list and the number in one line. Every price is the quote tool's own math — each venue at its 4-week rate, summed, less the 20% volume discount where the mix carries 10+ screens. These are starting points, not products: add, drop or cross markets and the tool re-prices instantly. Lead with a flat package — the à la carte total is what the same rooms cost hand-picked.

How to use a number on this sheet. It is an à la carte reference total for those exact rooms — not a package and not a discount tier. Quote it when the prospect wants these specific venues. Otherwise lead with the flat package: it is usually more screens for less money, and it is the fastest yes. Where a mix here prices under the nearest package, that is the cheaper-rooms trade-off — see the "I priced my own screens cheaper" card on the objection sheet before you quote it. The quote tool is authoritative; per-venue rates are on the Tupelo rate sheet.
